Westfield N.Y. FOUNDATION CHOSEN
November 1944

At a recent meeting in Chicago, officers and directors of the newly formed American Meat Institute Foundation were chosen from among the nation's foremost meat packers and industry leaders.

Thomas E. Wilson of Wilson & Company was elected chairman of the board; Wesley Hardenbergh, Meat Institute leader, as president; H. Harold Meyer of the H. H. Meyer Packing Company, secretary-treasurer; and Homer Davison and Roy Stone of the Institute as vice president and assistant secretary-treasurer, respectively.

Members of the board of directors are: E. A. Cudahy, H. R. Davison, G. A. Eastwood, T. Henry Foster, J. C. Hormel, P. F. Krey, George M. Lewis, Oscar G. Mayer, H. Harold Meyer, and Thomas E. Wilson.

The Foundation will administer an extensive technical and creative research program on the problems of the meat packing industry tended to benefit both the consuming public and the livestock and meat packing industry.

A fund of $500,000.00 was approved, half to be used for the construction of laboratories at the University of Chicago and half for laboratory equipment.
